

About Us

Cambridge English Examinations Centre Geneva is one of several local and independent exams centres authorised by Cambridge English Language Assessment to deliver its exams in Switzerland. Schools, teachers and learners may choose freely with which centre they would like to collaborate.

Cambridge English Language Assessment is part of the University of Cambridge. As a not-for-profit organisation, it develops and produces the most valuable range of qualifications for learners and teachers of English in the world. Over 5 million people take Cambridge English exams each year in more than 130 countries. Around the world over 20,000 universities, employers, government ministries and other organisations rely on Cambridge English exams and qualifications as proof of English language ability.

Cambridge English Language Assessment is represented by its global network of international offices. The West Europe office is responsible for Switzerland.
