

Questions & Answers

Before the exam

How do I register for a Cambridge English exam?

When do I have to pay for the exam?

How many types of Cambridge English exams are there?

Do I need to follow a course to take the exams?

What materials can I use to study for my Cambridge English exam?

Can I take a Cambridge English exam if I have any specific physical or learning difficulty?

Can I choose my partner for the Speaking Test?

Can I choose any day for my Speaking Test?

Can I change the date of my Speaking Test AFTER I have received my Exam Timetable?

Back to top

At the exam

When do I have to arrive at the examinations venue?

Can I use a dictionary or spell checker during the exam?

Can I eat, drink or smoke during the exam?

Can I take mobile phone to the examination?

What happens if I want to withdraw my registration?

What must I remember to take with me to the exam?

What can I have on my desk?

If I fail one paper, do I fail the whole exam?

What if something happened during the exam which might influence my performance?

What happens if I unavoidably miss part of an exam?

If I cannot take the exam, do I get my money back?

Back to top

After the exam

If I was unable to take the exam, can I re-take it?

How long will my score be valid?

What happens if I lose my certificate?

Back to top

